

Outlook Mobile Service with eCall™

Outlook Mobile Service is a feature in Microsoft Office Outlook 2007 that you can use similar to e-mail messages to create and send text messages to a mobile phone out of Outlook.

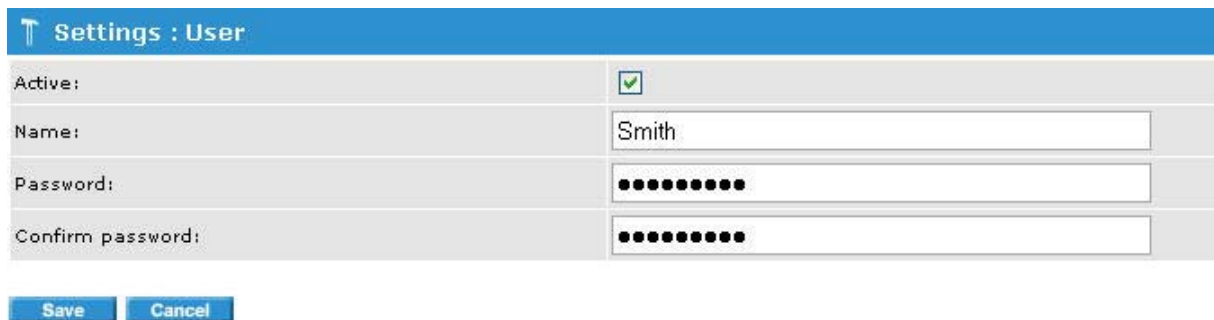

By using Outlook Mobile Service, you can post messages, both as an e-mail message and as a text message, and send it to multiple contacts. You can keep in touch even outside the office, because Outlook Mobile Service forwards e-mail messages and appointments that you select in your phone.

Setting up eCall

To use this service, you must first create in your eCall account under Settings -> OMS access via a user ID.

Enter name and password and save them.

The screenshot shows the 'Settings : User' form. It includes the following fields and controls:

- Active: A checkbox that is checked.
- Name: A text input field containing 'Smith'.
- Password: A password input field with masked characters.
- Confirm password: A password input field with masked characters.
- Buttons: 'Save' and 'Cancel' buttons at the bottom.

Note: You will need the user-ID and the password in order to set up the service in Outlook.
